Elmore State Park

Welcome to Elmore State Park. The Town of Lake Elmore calls itself “The Beauty Spot of Vermont.” Located in the southeastern part of Lamoille County, Elmore is 23,040 acres, or approximately 36 square miles of mostly forest and agricultural land. Lake Elmore and Elmore Mountain, which rises almost from the lake’s shore, are prominent features of the town.

Lake Elmore, 219 acres in size, drains into the Lamoille River through Pond Brook. The lake is a warm water fishery, and favored by both motorized and paddle boaters. Elmore Mountain’s summit (elev. 2,608 feet) is the site of one of Vermont’s few remaining fire towers. The mountain is part of the Worcester Range and offers hikers spectacular views.

The Park had its beginning in 1936 when the town of Elmore and local citizens made a gift of 30 acres on Lake Elmore to the State of Vermont. A picnic and beach area were soon built. Today, with more than 700 acres, Elmore State Park is a popular recreation facility.
